

Wearing Masks

We now need to wear a mask or face covering

in all shops

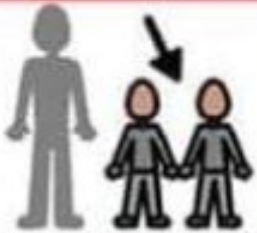

on public transport

in public transport premises

Some people do not need to wear masks or face coverings such as children under 5

police constables

paramedics

staff behind screens

when taking medicine

when communicating with someone who relies on lip reading physical distanced shop workers some medical conditions

while eating or drinking