

Communication

Cognition /
Thinking Skills

Independence

At Highfield school we provide a student-centred curriculum, delivered in an inclusive environment. Students will develop their communication, independence, and social skills to make outstanding personal progress towards their EHCP outcomes. We prepare them for the responsibilities and experiences of adult life, with opportunities for building their resilience throughout the curriculum.

Personal
Development

Health

Preparation for Work

